SEIU State Council Endorses Janet Reilly for Assembly

San Francisco, CA – Democratic Assembly candidate in the 12th Assembly District, Janet Reilly, today announced that she has received the endorsement of the SEIU State Council. The Council includes 600,000 working men and women in the state of California.

Janet Reilly said, "This endorsement means so much to me because I know that SEIU is going to be one of my strongest partners in passing universal health care in Sacramento. It's such an honor that an organization representing so many of California's health care workers has given me strong support and joined me in this fight. SEIU fights hard for candidates who are committed to reform – and I will fight just as hard in Sacramento for these working men and women. Together, we will make sure that no family in this state ever goes without health care."

Janet Reilly also recently received the dual endorsement of the San Francisco Fire Fighters Local 798.

Democrat Janet Reilly currently serves as a Director of the Golden Gate Bridge Board. Janet is a former journalist and has an extensive background in the non-profit world. Janet Reilly believes that we are never going to have real reform in Sacramento until we elect public officials who are willing to advocate for the bold solutions that are going to make a difference. That's why she has proposed a single payer health care system to provide health care to every Californian, a statewide plan for controlling growth and preventing sprawl, and guaranteed access to higher education for every student who graduates high school with a B average or higher.

Janet Reilly has been endorsed by a broad coalition of Bay Area public officials and community leaders including Assemblyman Leland Yee, Supervisors Aaron Peskin, Michela Alioto-Pier, Jake McGoldrick, Gerardo Sandoval, and Tom Ammiano; former Supervisor Matt Gonzalez, former Lt. Governor Leo McCarthy, labor leader Dolores Huerta and San Francisco Fire Fighters Local 798.
