Janet Reilly Receives Endorsement of “SF Tomorrow”
Endorsement Continues Clean Sweep of Environmental Groups in Bay Area

San Francisco, CA – Democratic Assembly candidate in the 12th Assembly District, Janet Reilly, today announced the endorsement of San Francisco Tomorrow (SFT), one of the longest running and most effective local environmental organizations in the entire country. SFT is the fourth Bay Area environmental group to endorse Janet Reilly’s campaign. Reilly has also received the endorsement of the Sierra Club, the California League of Conservation Voters and Vote the Coast.

SFT was founded in 1970 and is committed to better transit, environmental protection, neighborhood livability and good government.

Janet Reilly said, “San Francisco Tomorrow shares my view that protecting our environment requires a comprehensive and detailed leadership agenda. It’s an honor to receive their endorsement and I look forward to working with these dedicated community leaders to find solutions to our most pressing community challenges.”

Janet Reilly recently published a comprehensive environmental agenda that includes investing in mass transit, reducing air and water pollution, protecting our coast and open space, addressing climate change, addressing environmental justice issues, and developing alternative energy sources.
