Daly City Mayor Carol Klatt Endorses Janet Reilly

(September 29, 2005) Daly City Mayor Carol Klatt today announced her endorsement of Janet Reilly, Democratic candidate for Assembly in District 12. Assembly District 12 includes San Francisco, Daly City, Broadmoor, and Colma.

Mayor Klatt said, "I am committed to Janet Reilly because she is committed to making sure that Daly City families are strongly represented in Sacramento. From affordable health care, to excellent schools, to transportation, I am impressed that Janet is tackling the big issues that are so important to the lives of Daly City residents."

Janet Reilly said, "Daly City is an extraordinary community, and I am thrilled to receive the endorsement of such a dedicated public servant and community leader. I strongly believe that Bay Area leaders need to work together on the challenges that will move our region forward: reducing traffic, protecting our environment, and investing in the infrastructure that creates jobs and grows our economy. I am honored by Carol's support and I look forward to teaming up with her to serve Daly City families."

Earlier this week, Janet Reilly was also endorsed by Leland Yee, the current Assemblymember for District 12.

Mayor Carol Klatt is a 12 year veteran of the Daly City Council. Mayor Klatt has lived in Daly City for over 38 years. She has served the community twice as mayor and has been reelected to the City Council three times.

Democrat Janet Reilly currently serves as a Director of the Golden Gate Bridge Board. Janet is a former journalist who has worked as a businesswoman and has an extensive background in the non-profit world. Janet Reilly also serves on Mayor Gavin Newsom's Policy Council for Children, Youth and Families, but she considers her experience raising two daughters in the Bay Area one of her most important qualifications for Assembly.
